Mr. Graham Gardner

1962

Bennett College

"If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings — nor lose the common touch . . .
Yours is the Earth and everything
that's in it,
And — which is more — you'll be a Man, my son!"

We, the Class of 1962,

Remember most of all
 The bird call, the squirrel,
 And occasional rabbit
 Out the window. Lyric, Epic, and thick novel
 Have their ur-type in these.
 Drama moves their fortunes
 Up and down: song, oak-crown,
 The nibble at a shrub Fresh-flowering. The mesh
 Of time contains and frees
 Their meaning: pain's hard nub, Joy's range, victory's Look, love's change, and so on.
 Nothing is really gone —
 Its true sum is something Sensed, heart-taught, and blood-let.
Madeline Cundiff Covi

Live to the Truth
is Bennett's timeless word.
Live to the Truth
and let our voice be heard.
Here together,
we strive to search and find What these gentle hills can give,
God's peace of heart and mind.

Love for the present day and faith in days to come.
Strength in the years ahead to bring us safely home.
Live to the Truth
is Bennett's timeless word.
Live to the Truth
and let our voice be heard.
